

DISMANTLING PROCEDURE

This product should be dismantled for disposal when it reaches the end of its life. Ensure that the electrical supply is disconnected before removal from the installation. Consult a qualified electrician if in any doubt.

Product type:	Commercial Downlight
Product codes:	RDL9CCT
Dismantling procedure:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Lever the diffuser out of the housing by inserting a small screwdriver around its edge 2. Lift out the opaque white reflector 3. Unscrew the LED light source from the body of the fitting, and cut through the wires 4. Remove the grey polycarbonate cover from the rear of the fitting 5. Prise out the PCB 6. Squeeze the springs to extract them from the luminaire housing
Recycling material:
PCB	Electrical goods
LED light source
Screws	Metal
Springs
Polycarbonate housing	Plastic
Diffuser
Reflector

Advice from local recycling facilities should be sought as to specific types of waste which may be accepted.